2/10/25 Under the order of 10th April 1907, the time spent as medical pupils does not count for service for promotion. Under Govt order No 2 3023-24/Med 40-20-31 dt 16/10/22, Asst Surgeons have to put in 20 years' service before they can be promoted to Rs 750 which with Lt. pay allowance has been fixed at Rs. The rule of 1907 is reported to work hardship in the case of this class of officers. The Senior Surgeon therefore recommends that the service put in by Asst Surgeons as medical pupils be allowed to count for purpose of promotion only, as this will not increase the average cost to any appreciable extent. and the case of Mr Khaja Mahomed may be brought under this rule. and he may be promoted to Rs 750 from 1st April 1925. G. D. SECTION

To

The Secretary to the Government of
His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore,
Local and Legislative Departments, Bangalore.

Sir,

I have the honour to forward herewith, for favourable consideration and orders, an application from Sub Assistant Surgeon Mr. Khaja Mahomed, received with the District Medical Officer's Memo No.403 dated 3rd August 1925, praying for promotion to the Special pay of Rs.77/- in the scale on the ground that he completed 20 years' service from the dateof his entertainment, viz., 1st April 1905. The recommendation of the District Medical Officer speaks for itself, as to the fitness of the Sub Assistant Surgeon for the promotion.

Mr. Khaja Mahomed is one of the Mysore State Pupils who passed from the Rayapuram School in March 1905 and whose entertainment in service as Passed Medical Pupils on Rs.16 per mensem with effect from 1st April 1905 was approved in Government Order No.11096-7 Med.62-04-4, dated 2nd June 1905. These Pupils were duly absorbed in the sanctioned strength of Sub Assistant Surgeon (then known as Hospital Assistants) as vacancies occurred, and among others, the confirmation of Mr. Khaja Mahomed as Hospital Assistant with effect from 1st April 1907 , was sanctioned in Government No. 3142-3 Med.28-08-4 dated 24th September 1908.

The promotion of these Sub Assistant Surgeons has been regulated in accordance with Government Order No. 9366-7 Med.163-06 5, dated 10th April 1907, leaving out of account the period put in by them as Passed Medical Pupils, which is excluded from the benefit of the leave and pension rules. Mr. Khaja Mahomed has thus lost the benefit of two years' hard work for purposes of his promotion.

The scale of pay of Sub Assistant Surgeons at present requires one to wait for twenty years to earn a pay of Rs.77/- If to this long period, the time spent as Passed Medical Pupil (but actually doing all the duties expected of a Sub Assistant Surgeon) be added, it may be imagined what a disheartening effect this long waiting will have on these hard worked subordinates.

In Madras, stipendiary Pupils, as soon as they qualify, are forthwith allowed the pay of Sub Assistant Surgeon, without being made to put in non-pensionable service as Passed Medical Pupils. I do not propose a similar practice here, as it will mean exceeding the sanctioned strength of the cadre. But counting the service as Passed Medical Pupil for purposes of promotion to pay of Rs.77/- will not make any appreciable difference in the average cost to Government on the pay of a Sub Assistant Surgeon, while the encouragement it will give to the members of this most useful and deserving class will be great.

I therefore request that Government may be pleased to sanction the promotion of Sub Assistant Surgeon Mr. Khaja Mahomed to Rs.77/- with effect from 1st April 1925 and to apply the concession generally to all Sub Assistant Surgeons who have yet to be promoted to that pay.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Senior Surgeon

To

The District Medical Officer, Hassan.

Sir,

I beg to represent that I was entertained in service on 1st April 1905 and as such I have put in twenty years service. So I beg you to kindly recommend my case to Senior Surgeon to grant me next special grade from the date due for promotion. I have been discharging my duties to the satisfaction of my superior officers. For which act of kindness I shall remain highly grateful.

I beg to remain, Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

Hassan.

sd. Khaja Mahomed.
Sub Assistant Surgeon,
D. D. District Hospital, Hassan.

Submitted to the Senior Surgeon in Mysore, Bangalore, for favourable consideration. He was entertained as passed Medical Pupil on 1st April 1905, promoted to 3rd class Hospital Assistant on 1st April 1907 on probation and confirmed from the dame date. He has put in over twenty years service to the entire satisfaction of all the officers he had an opportunity to serve under. He is very zealous in his work and carries out his professional work very satisfactorily. He fully deserves the promotion he prays for and so I recommend him to be placed in the spcial grade.

Government Order No. G. 679-80—Med. 69-16-4, dated the 13th July 1918, sanctioning the reoganisation of the Medical Department and fixing therein the number and scale of pay of Sub-Assistant Surgeons as follows:—

Sub-Assistant Surgeons	...	...	172 on Rs. 35—10/5—65
After 20 years' service	...	...	„ 65—5/5—70

2. Government Order No. G. 19965-6—Med. 114-17-4, dated the 7th March 1919, raising the minimum pay of Sub-Assistant Surgeons from Rs. 35 to Rs. 45 per mensem.

3. Government Order No. L. 2600-1—Med. 46-21-2, dated the 5th November 1921, directing that the maintenance of Lists A. and B. be done away with, the Sub-Assistant Surgeons shown in List B. each being given, in the combined statement, the last place among men who were drawing the same pay when he had entered the service.

4. Correspondence ending with letter No. G. C. 203-2 of 1920-21, dated the 11—12th August 1922, from the Senior Surgeon in Mysore, requesting that Sub-Assistant Surgeons be made eligible for earning promotion to Rs. 70 per mensem after putting in a service of 20 years.

At the time of fixing the rate of promotion to Sub-Assistant Surgeons and the period after which they could become eligible to a pay of Rs. 70, the minimum pay of Sub-Assistant Surgeons was generally Rs. 35 per mensem. But consequent on the raising of the initial pay of this class of officers from Rs. 35 to Rs. 45 and by the fusion of the Sub-Assistant Surgeons of Lists A. and B., the period of service to be put in by Sub-Assistant Surgeons to earn a pay of Rs. 65 was considerably reduced and the Senior Surgeon represents that in order to get a promotion to Rs. 70 after attaining the pay of Rs. 65, a Sub-Assistant Surgeon has now to wait not for 10 years as was originally intended by the Government Order dated the 13th July 1918, but for 15 years. With a view to remove the hardship caused to Sub-Assistant Surgeons by the existing arrangement, the Senior Surgeon recommends that the words "after 20 years' service Rs. 65—$\frac{5}{5}$—70" occurring in para 1 (v) of the Government Order dated the 13th July 1918, read above, be changed into "after 20 years' service Rs. 70."

2. Government agree with the Senior Surgeon that the period of service to be put in on a pay of Rs. 65 to earn the pay of Rs. 70 under existing conditions, works as a hardship on the Sub-Assistant Surgeons and are therefore pleased to sanction his recommendation. They are further pleased to direct that the Sub-Assistant Surgeons referred to in the annexed statement, who have put in 20 years' service and have been drawing Rs. 65, be promoted to Rs. 70 with effect from the dates noted against each.

3. The additional cost involved will, as proposed by the Senior Surgeon, be met out of the provision made for "Passed Medical Pupils" in the current year's Medical Budget.
